

DOUBLE DABBLE

Practice meets theory. 4 Feb 2017. 10am-4pm. Shipley Art Gallery

Double Dabble: A Feminist Day of Making is a workshop attempting to bridge feminist theory and practice through the practice of making on the 4th of February 2017 at the Shipley Art Gallery in Gateshead.

The aim of the event is to create a selection of interactive dabble stations for attendees to sample various creative activities and feminist theories.

We are looking for dabbling hosts who can bring along knowledges around either feminist theories and/or creative practice. Eg. historic, cultural, economic, philosophical, or social perspective of feminisms ; zine makers, artists, poets, musicians, makers, hobby-tinkerers, crafters, or circuitry-wizards.

*If you would like to be involved, please send an e-mail to either:
Angelika <A.strohmayer@newcastle.ac.uk>
Janis <J.L.Meissner2@newcastle.ac.uk>*

This event is organised by fempower.tech and sponsored by:
